

Collective Health Care Insurance

Save on premiums collectively

Would you like to be even more attractive to employees? To be able to offer them comprehensive insurance protection? And all of this, at attractive premiums?

If so, CONCORDIA collective insurances are the ideal solution as far as care and hospital supplementary insurances are concerned. CONCORDIA Mandatory Health Care Insurance completes this attractive offer. Family members of employees also benefit from the preferential conditions, precisely up to a 25% discount on the following supplementary insurances:

DIVERSA and DIVERSA^{plus}

These insurances pay for a whole range of benefits beyond the minimum prescribed by law for basic insurance, such as payments for medication not covered by mandatory insurance, vaccinations and dental corrections, including coverage while abroad.

NATURA and NATURA^{plus}

With these insurances, benefits of alternative medicine and prevention are covered as well as additional complementary medicine offers and methods of prevention.

Hospital Insurance PE and Hospital LIBERO

For more protection and comfort in the Hospital. With Hospital Insurance PE and Hospital LIBERO, the insured person can choose where and by whom he or she would like to be treated.

Collective Health Care Insurance, Satisfying Advantages

Here are the features of CONCORDIA Collective Health Care Insurances:

- Clearly more favourable premiums
- Worthwhile discounts, even for family members
- Attractive supplementary insurances
- Comprehensive coverage
- Individual advisory services
- Advantageous solutions for families: children up to the age of 15 only pay premiums of max. CHF 3 per month and for each supplementary insurance DIVERSA, NATURA and Hospital Insurance PE3 (general) throughout Switzerland.
- Retired employees can remain in the collective contract and therefore continue to benefit from the preferential conditions.
